

The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA to Host Juan Williams, NPR and Fox News Journalist, Writer and Political Analyst at Annual Benefit Dinner

Princeton, May 6 – The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA will host its 48th annual dinner on Thursday, May 21st with a reception starting at 5:30 PM, followed by dinner at 6:30 PM in the All Purpose Room of the Princeton Family YMCA, 59 Paul Robeson Place.

The public is invited to spend the evening with featured speaker Juan Williams, one of America's leading political commentators and writers, whose presentation, "The Half Life of New in the Age of Twitter" will address the challenges and opportunities the news industry is experiencing in the rapidly-changing digital age.

Williams is the Senior Correspondent for National Public Radio and Political Analyst for the Fox News Channel. He is a regular panelist on the weekly news affair program Fox News Sunday, Bill O'Reilly's TV news show, The O'Reilly Factor and appears regularly on the panel of Special Report with Brit Hume. Williams also spent 18 months as host of NPR's afternoon talk show, Talk of the Nation, taking the show to its highest rating ever.

Journalist, writer and political analyst Juan Williams of National Public Radio and Fox News will be the featured speaker for the 2009 Executive Club dinner at the Princeton Family YMCA, Thursday, May 21, 2009 at 5:30 pm. Seating is limited. Ticket information: 609-497-9622 x210 or visit www.princetonymca.org.

Williams has also authored several bestselling books including the acclaimed biography Thurgood Marshall – American Revolutionary (re-released in 2008), Enough – the Phony Leaders, Dead-End Movements, and Cultures of Failure That Are Undermining Black America, released in 2006.

The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA was founded in 1961 when local civic, business and community leaders determined that a forum was needed to promote fellowship and encourage financial support for the YMCA. Today, the Executive Club welcomes anyone who wishes to grow in mind and spirit through education and discourse. Proceeds from the dinner are used to underwrite the YMCA's financial assistance program that ensures programs are available to all who wish to participate.

For ticket information, please call 609-497-9622 x210 or visit the website www.princetonymca.org. Seating is limited.

###

The Princeton Family YMCA is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to enriching the spirit, mind and body and improving quality of life. We create and deliver values-based programs that draw their inspiration from our Judeo-Christian heritage. We serve people of all ages, races and creeds, with an emphasis on families and youth.

The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA to Host Juan Williams, NPR and Fox News Journalist, Writer and Political Analyst at Annual Benefit Dinner

Princeton, May 6 – The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA will host its 48th annual dinner on Thursday, May 21st with a reception starting at 5:30 PM, followed by dinner at 6:30 PM in the All Purpose Room of the Princeton Family YMCA, 59 Paul Robeson Place.

Journalist, writer and political analyst Juan Williams of National Public Radio and Fox News will be the featured speaker for the 2009 Executive Club dinner at the Princeton Family YMCA, Thursday, May 21, 2009 at 5:30 pm. Seating is limited. Ticket information: 609-497-9622 x210 or visit www.princetonymca.org.

The public is invited to spend the evening with featured speaker Juan Williams, one of America's leading political commentators and writers, whose presentation, "The Half Life of New in the Age of Twitter" will address the challenges and opportunities the news industry is experiencing in the rapidly-changing digital age.

Williams is the Senior Correspondent for National Public Radio and Political Analyst for the Fox News Channel. He is a regular panelist on the weekly news affair program Fox News Sunday, Bill O'Reilly's TV news show, The O'Reilly Factor and appears regularly on the panel of Special Report with Brit Hume. Williams also spent 18 months as host of NPR's afternoon talk show, Talk of the Nation, taking the show to its highest rating ever.

Williams has also authored several bestselling books including the acclaimed biography Thurgood Marshall – American Revolutionary (re-released in 2008), Enough – the Phony Leaders, Dead-End Movements, and Cultures of Failure That Are Undermining Black America, released in 2006.

The Executive Club of the Princeton Family YMCA was founded in 1961 when local civic, business and community leaders determined that a forum was needed to promote fellowship and encourage financial support for the YMCA. Today, the Executive Club welcomes anyone who wishes to grow in mind and spirit through education and discourse. Proceeds from the dinner are used to underwrite the YMCA's financial assistance program that ensures programs are available to all who wish to participate.

For ticket information, please call 609-497-9622 x210 or visit the website www.princetonymca.org. Seating is limited.

###

The Princeton Family YMCA is a charitable, not-for-profit organization dedicated to enriching the spirit, mind and body and improving quality of life. We create and deliver values-based programs that draw their inspiration from our Judeo-Christian heritage. We serve people of all ages, races and creeds, with an emphasis on families and youth.