PRINCETON FAMILY YMCA BOARD OF DIRECTORS WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Several local community leaders were recently elected to the Princeton Family YMCA Board of Directors to serve two to three-year terms.

Left to right are new members David Leach (Yardley, PA), Senior Associate Director of Athletics at Princeton University; Jane Fransson (Princeton), community advocate and leader; Will Dove (Princeton), Principal, Princeton Actuarial and Risk Consulting LLC; Tracy Sippelle (Princeton), Founder, Bee Fit with Tracy; Nicole Sciotto, Esq. (Princeton), Associate, Mason, Griffin & Pierson; Lauren Hogshire, M.D. (Princeton), Robert Wood Johnson Medical Group; and Rev. Dr. John E. White (Princeton), Dean of Students, Princeton Theological Seminary. The new board members will help in leading the Princeton Family YMCA in strategy, financial stewardship and fundraising efforts. "We're very proud to have this caliber of talent and experience join our board," commented Chair-elect Paul Biondi, Senior Vice President at Bristol-Myers Squibb and a resident of Skillman, "We look forward to working side by side to make great things happen for our community."

About the Y

The Y is one of the nation's leading nonprofit strengthening communities through youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. Across the U.S., 2,687 Ys engage 21 million men, women and children – regardless of age, income or background – to nurture the potential of children and teens, improve the nation's health and well-being and provide opportunities to give back and support neighbors. Anchored in more than 10,000 communities, the Y has the long-standing relationships and physical presence not just to promise, but to deliver, lasting personal and social change. www.princetonymca.org
